

Family Matters: Moving Forward Together What Does Your Family Business Mean to You and What Keeps You Up at Night?

A Family Business Retreat:

Guided by nature, horses, family dialogue and constructive conversation.

Strengthen your family business by enhancing your foundation of trust, connection, communication, and positive relationship as together you:

- honor your past,
- celebrate your present,
- envision your future.

June 7, 9:00am - 4:00 pm
Pebble Ledge Ranch, Novelty Ohio

Operating a family-owned business is different than operating any other kind of business and has its unique challenges and opportunities.

A herd is inclusive: Everyone belongs, everyone is essential, everyone matters.

Join Herb and Jackie and the Herd to enhance the culture of your family business by exploring what might be possible when family matters and you move forward together.

How might your family business thrive through the generations? Together we will draw from the following:

- Living and working together towards a shared meaning and purpose.
- Sharing the responsibility of co creating an inclusive safe place and a space of belonging for everyone.
- Learning to face obstacles shoulder to shoulder and face conflict with productive conversation, wisdom and courage.
- Inspiring the next generation to be engaged, resilient, present and fulfilled by their unique contribution to the success of the family business.
- Maximizing business potential, purpose, and possibility, by committing to shared values, vision, and legacy

Guided by nature, horses and your own insights and ideas you will have the opportunity to learn from the successes of each other.

Facilitators: Herb Stevenson and Jackie Stevenson

Herb Stevenson, MA, CDP, CPC, is CEO of the Cleveland Consulting Group, Inc., where he focuses on organizations that recognize that business is more than a problem to be solved. He leads a global coaching and consulting practice. He is certified as a Board-Certified Executive Coach, Gestalt Certified Coach, Certified Diversity Professional.

Jackie Stevenson, MSSA, LISW, BCC, is CEO of Spirit of Leadership Services LLC, providing coaching, and leadership and team building retreats for individuals, teams and organizations incorporating horses and nature with solid business principles. Jackie is author of Someday We'll Live Like Horses: Authentic Presence in Leadership and Life